

More Rave Reviews for Playfair on Campus

James Madison University, VA

Thanks again for such an awesome Playfair on Wednesday. It really set the stage for the rest of our orientation.

Indiana University Southeast, IN

I wanted to let you know that I sat in during the first session and I think it was great! The feedback we received from the student evaluations and the Orientation Leaders was really positive, so thank you! I hope we can do it again during future Orientations.

St. Cloud State University, MN

Thank you for facilitating such a wonderful event last night. My Orientation Leaders have had so many good things to say about the experience, both for themselves and the people in their groups. You are one of those people one meets in life who spreads such positive and creative energy; it's really exciting. I'm glad to have met you.

It was clear again to me this year that Playfair not only "works" well (thanks to skilled facilitators like yourself), but it is exactly the kind of thing our new students need at that particular moment as they enter the university. Like other institutions, we are still trying to figure out the right balance for our orientation programming, but I can assure you that, if I have anything to do with it, Playfair is in there to stay.

Tennessee State University

Thank you so much for facilitating a great program at TSU! The students had a great time and really had a chance to relax, have fun, and get to know each other. I appreciate your positivity, excitement, and flexibility!

The College of New Rochelle, NY

I want to thank you so much for facilitating Playfair this past Sunday! It was an excellent addition to our Orientation for freshman students. Your enthusiasm was contagious (the students and staff are still imitating some of the phrases and games :) and I believe this was a great start to a year where we are working hard to increase school spirit! I hope we gain the opportunity to have you return in the future!

Washington College, MD

Thank you for coming and "Playfairing" our students! They seemed to really enjoy it and I have heard great things about the program. Thank you again!

SUNY Geneseo, NY

We had an awesome event thanks to you. I was really impressed with the whole gig, considering I had never experienced Playfair before. You did a great job and I think the students really liked it. So thank YOU!

It was a pleasure working with you and I hope to touch base in the future!!

Trinity University, TX

The really fun part of the day came at 9:30 when Playfair happened. Simply put Playfair involves meeting the most amount of people in the least amount of time. There were tons of different ice breakers designed to get you to meet people. Two of my favorites involved creating an argument and rock, paper, scissors. The creating an argument was rather straight forward, you and a partner had an argument about whatever you wanted. I argued that bowling was better than tennis. So it was a good way to relieve stress and frustration without hurting anyone.

Now rock, paper, scissors started out normally... You and a partner had a best of three match, here's the twist. After a winner has been declared that person runs around the gym with their hand in the air shouting "I am the victor" the loser must follow and chant the victor's name. Whenever two victors met they had a best of three match and so on and so forth. I managed to do pretty well and made it to somewhere around the final 10 victors before losing out. I had literally 50+ people following me chanting my name and that was pretty awesome.

Embry Riddle Aeronautical University, AZ

The students had a blast! The effect on the class was very noticeable in terms of their comfort level with each other.

Cornell University, NY

Playfair facilitator Mark Gessner has an awesome amount of energy that works really well for our large crowd size. Mark is hysterical and an overall awesome entertainer!

University of Maryland, MD

Thanks so much for your contribution to our New Resident Orientation Program. Playfair facilitator Newton Kaneshiro is amazing! Always flexible and energetic, he really has command of the show!

Westminster College, MO

Playfair is the favorite event of our students! We'll call you soon to rebook for next year.
